

Procedure Name	Academic Credit and RPL Procedure
Procedure Number	A014
Approval Authority	Academic Board
Responsible Officer	Dean
Operational Responsibility	Academic Operations Manager
Purpose	The purpose of this procedure is to describe how Recognition of Prior Learning (hereafter, RPL) will be processed for LCI Melbourne (LCIM) students to grant academic credit for LCIM units.
Scope	This procedure applies to all applications for RPL submitted by students and applicants enrolling into a course of study at LCIM.
Procedure Statement	The Dean and Academic Operations Manager of LCIM are ultimately responsible for RPL and Credit evaluation. The Academic Operations Manager delegates individual assessments to the Unit Coordinator or other field of education expert at LCIM. In determining credit transfer or prior learning comparability and equivalence, the following criteria is evaluated: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ learning outcomes for credit transfer, ▪ the volume of learning for credit transfer, ▪ program of student, including content, for credit transfer, ▪ learning and assessment approaches, for credit transfer, and ▪ type of accomplishments and professional experience, for recognition of prior learning; Decisions are evidence-based, equitable and transparent, applied consistently and fairly and are subject to appeal and review. LCIM recognises learning regardless of how, when and where it was acquired, provided that the learning is relevant and current and has a relationship to outcomes of the qualification from LCIM. The decisions must be academically defensible and consider the student's ability to meet the learning outcomes of the qualification successfully. In line with Higher Education Standards Framework (Threshold Standards) 2021, Standard 1.2.2.a.

	students granted such credits may not be disadvantaged in achieving the expected learning outcomes of the program of study. Furthermore, the decisions are made in a timely manner (processed within two weeks) to ensure that students' access to qualifications is not unnecessarily inhibited. Decisions allow for credit outcomes to be used for the partial fulfilment of the requirements of a qualification and are formally documented on the students' file, including any reasons for not awarding credit. If a table of credits is developed with partner institutes with which LCIM has an approved Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) this will be used for granting credit and in accordance with the Higher Education Standards Framework (Threshold Standards) 2021.

Definitions	Recognised Prior Learning	RPL is comprised of any relevant prior work experience or qualifications in line with the learning outcomes of the curriculum to be studied that is completed outside the educational system, such as: work or life experience, self-directed study, travel, volunteer work and participation in training sessions offered by professional and industry associations.
	Recognised Prior Learning Assessment	To earn prior learning credit for a course or units offered by a post-secondary institution, students must provide evidence and demonstrate that the learning is equivalent to learning that would have been acquired had they previously taken the course(s).

	Credit Transfer	Credit transfer is when a student applies for credit for an equivalent course they have previously completed elsewhere. Credit transfers are only issued if a course or group of units are determined to be equivalent to the course for which transfer credit is being requested.
